This matter came before the Court this date for a Telephonic Status Conference.

The Court presented its position regarding the restricting publication of third parties with regard to the motions filed by Mr. Morgan, Ms. Neff and Ms. Bourke.

The Court explained the procedure as to the hearing scheduled this date.

Upon inquiry by the Court, Ms. Neff clarified her employment as to her employer. Ms. Neff stated that she is a freelance journalist and not employed by any other publications.

The Court inquired of Ms. Pahl with regard to unauthorized practice of law as to Ms. Neff. Ms. Pahl advised that she had no objection to permitting Ms. Neff to make arguments regarding her motions filed August 19, 2019.

Ms. Pahl presented the position of Mr. Contreras.

The Court heard from and addressed Ms. Neff.

The Court heard from and addressed Ms. Bourke.

Date: 09/18/2019 Case No.: S0200DO200901390
Minute Entry – Telephonic Status Conference

The Court inquired of Ms. Bourke and Ms. Pahl regarding Mr. Morgan's Motion to Intervene filed on September 16, 2019. There being no objection by the parties, the Court will move forward this date as to Mr. Morgan's motion.

The Court heard from and addressed Ms. Weber.

The Court heard from and addressed Mr. Morgan.

The Court heard from and addressed Mr. Leslie.

The Court heard from and addressed Ms. Bourke.

Ms. Sacramento presented her position as Guardian Ad Litem with regard to the motions filed.

The Court addressed the parties and will prepare written findings as required under Rule 17 by separate order to clarify the Court's original order dated August 9, 2019 and amended order dated August 15, 2019.

Discussion was held by the Court and Ms. Neff as to her motions filed on August 19, 2019. Ms. Neff stated that as the Court will be clarifying the August 15, 2019 order, Ms. Neff will withdraw her motions at this time.

Ms. Pahl clarified for the record that Mr. Contreras is now officially a candidate.

The Court heard from and addressed Ms. Bourke as to her motions filed on September 10, 2019. The Court noted that no responses to the motions have been received, and therefore they are not before the Court at this time.

Proceedings concluded.
